

Empowering Latino Leaders

Josue Marin Cruz

Director of Operations
Spring 2019

Introduction

I am excited to be running for the Spring 2019 Director of Operations position. I transferred to California State University, Long Beach in Spring 2017. I was never introduced on how recruiting worked until I joined Accounting Society which introduced me, and the members provided information on betterment. I joined ALPFA in Fall 2018, and the idea of joining a family was a major encouragement to be a part of something great. The environment was welcoming and it motivates me to attend meetings and events. I had the great opportunity of meeting amazing people I have become connected with. ALPFA has allowed me to experience the West Region Convention and The National Convention. I had such an amazing experience and the personal growth each event provided was extraordinary.

Qualifications

I have been a part of ALPFA for two semesters, and I am honored to have joined ALPFAmalia. Before I joined ALPFA my schedule was school and work. In my first semester, I joined the event committed, this position gave me a clear understanding on how important this position of directors contribute to the organization. In my second semester, I joined the development committed, my engagement was greater and I want to contribute in helping the organization to grow on campus because it was new and growing. I want to promote everything ALPFA offers and give students the opportunity to experience ALPFAmalia and the job opportunities provide by the professional chapters. I am qualified for the Director of Operations position because I am ready to help and inspire others grow personally and professionally. I am ready to take the next step by taking this position and give back to the organization that has given me so much.

Goals and Accomplishments

Help in the growth of the organization by promoting meetings and events while ensuring the increase of new members.
Work closely with Treasurer and Event directors in planning fundraisers to generate funds for the organization
Assist every board member to extend the organization while helping members in their development process
Work with the treasurer to provide variances type of food while maintaining budget and give the member the ability to give a feedback on the food and their experience
